

Microcosm and macrocosm: the legacy of Leonardo in the children's hospital

IN COMMEMORATION OF THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF LEONARDO DA VINCI

Welcome remarks

Introduction

Alberto Zanobini, CEO, Meyer Children's Hospital and President, European Children's Hospitals Organisation (ECHO)

The Leonardo 4 Children Initiative

Alessandro Carano, Founder and President, Carano 4 Children Foundation

The ages of the human body in Leonardo's anatomy

Domenico Laurenza, Researcher, Museo Galileo

The life of infants and children in 15th century Florence

John Henderson, Professor of Italian Renaissance History,
Birkbeck, University of London

Conclusions

Luigi Dei, Rector, University of Florence

May 4, 2019

10-12:00

Palazzo Medici Riccardi, Sala Luca Giordano - Florence