Terms and conditions

“Leonardo 4 Children 2022: Climate, Equality & Peace” Awards

non-profit initiative

The awards will allow young music composers to use and develop their creativity and artistic skills, inspired by Leonardo da Vinci, to interpret in music in a proactive way the following topics of global relevance: climate change and environmental sustainability, equality including gender and social equality, and peace. They are invited to take as source of inspiration a fable by Leonardo da Vinci or an original work by children and teenagers who won one of the previous editions of Leonardo4Children.

1. Duration

The competition is open between 1st November 2021 and 15th May 2022.

2. Eligibility

“Participants”: the authors of the works eligible for the competitions shall be young people legally resident in a Member State of the European Union¹, aged between 18 and 30 years old at the date of submission, enrolled in or graduated from a Conservatory / Music school located in the EU.

Contributions from young people living in other countries worldwide are welcome - with the possible support of local partner organisations - and will receive specific recognition if there is a minimum of 100 participants from the related region (Africa, Asia, Europe outside EU, North America, South America, Oceania).

3. Work

The award focuses on the creation of an original music composition interpreting one or more of the topics “Climate”, “Equality”, “Peace”.

The “work” submitted for the competition shall be an original creation by the participants and could be based on one of the following:

- Fables written by Leonardo da Vinci, available at <https://carano4children.org/fables-of-leonardo-da-vinci>
- Fables by children or Art&Science works by teenagers which won the “Leonardo 4

Children 2020: Climate Action competitions”, available at <https://carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2020> or <https://carano4children.org/leonardo4children-2021>

The participants are encouraged to make preparatory work on the fable and on creative interpretation, as well as on music techniques.

The work should:

- be completely original and not contain any third party's work;
- have a duration between 3' and 10';
- consist of a melodic music played by classical music instruments: minimum 1 classical music instrument (piano or violin); maximum 7 classical music instruments (string quartet, piano, flute, harp) with the option to add percussion instruments;
- include minimum 1 and maximum 3 classical singer voice types (chosen among: soprano, mezzo-soprano, tenor, baritone, bass), playing original songs aligned with the content of the chosen Fable either using textual sentences, or with a free original poetic interpretation in any language;
- possibly include as an option a children's choir including 2-3 voices (soprano, mezzo-soprano, contralto);
- possibly be done in team with multiple musical and creative competences.

The work should include:

- a partition, possibly written using a programme for musical partitions (eg Sibelius, Finale,...);
- the text played by the voices and choir;

either a recording of the composition or a MIDI file.

4. Submission

The works shall be submitted using the form available in Annex 1 and at: www.carano4children.org. The form, duly completed, must be sent to the following e-mail address: leonardo@carano4children.org.

The applicants and participants are welcome to post information on social media using @carano4children and #Leonardo4Children.

By submitting the application, the applicant agrees with these “Terms and conditions”.

5. Scoring

The eligible works will be scored using inter alia the following award criteria:

- 1 Creativity and originality
- 2 Quality of music melody
- 3 Quality of vocal and choral elements
- 4 Alignment of the work with the selected fable or winning work (optional).

6. Jury

The Jury will be selected by the Advisory Board and include professional members from at least 3 different countries: composers, musicians and singers.

The Jury members shall be independent, have no conflict of interest and commit to adhere to the highest standards of impartiality and fairness in their judgement. During the evaluation process, the Jury will not have access to the personal data of the applicant, nor the participating children, in order to ensure fairness in their judgement.

The applicants cannot contact the members of the Jury. The judgement of the Jury is final and cannot be appealed.

7. Awards

The announcement of winners will be made by mid June 2022, and the award ceremony will take place in October 2022.

The winning composer will be offered the opportunity to use her/his music composition for the promotional video of Leonardo 4 Children initiative and for the partners of the initiative.

The 3 works with the best scoring will receive an award, which will consist in:

- publication on “Leonardo 4 Children” book;
- presentation at workshop and award ceremony;
- presentation on website, social media and promotional material, and at public events, institutions or public places including famous museums, and during concerts and events;
- “Leonardo 4 Children 2021” award certificate.

The foundation will seek partners and sponsors to offer special awards for talent development, which would consist in material related to art and science, or special experiences related to art and science, such as for example:

- workshops or courses on art or science, possibly with reference to climate, equality or peace;
- visit accompanied by experts to:
 - art site: UNESCO site, art restoration site, theatre, museum, etc.

- science site: city of the future, airport, space laboratory, aircraft or helicopter factory, advanced car factory, renewable energy site, research laboratory, etc;
- meeting with a personality or an expert in art or science, for example:
 - art: composer, singer, violinist, music player, dancer, art expert, etc.
 - science: astronaut, pilot, driver, architect, engineer, web expert, etc.

These will be announced, alongside the modalities to assign and benefit from the awards, on the website www.carano4children.org progressively and at the latest by the closing date of the competition.

8. Compliance and license

By participating in this award and submitting any video, image, audio file or any other material related to this award (hereafter 'the works submitted for this award'), the applicant:

- ensures compliance of his/her submission with the applicable law;
- warrants that the works submitted for this award does not infringe the rights of any third party nor violate any applicable law or regulation;
- declares that he/she holds all the intellectual property rights covering the works submitted for this award, and/or that he/she obtained appropriate authorisation from the concerned right-holders to use their works in the works submitted for this award such as from the legal representatives of minors;
- grants the “Carano 4 Children” foundation a worldwide, royalty free, perpetual (for the duration of the applicable copyright), non-exclusive licence to reproduce and communicate to the public the works submitted for this award and to distribute copies thereof. Under this licence, the “Carano 4 Children” foundation will in particular be entitled to use the works submitted for this award for publication on any form of media, including for products and services used for fund-raising in favour of the no-profit philanthropic and charity objectives of the “Leonardo 4 Children” initiative;
- for winners and for participants who will send the original works, grants the “Carano 4 Children” foundation the right to use the original works for exhibitions and for auctions to raise funds in favour of the beneficiary projects of the initiative, i.e. for the education in art & science of children in need.

The applicant should explicitly decide whether to authorise the “Carano 4 Children” foundation to use and publish the name and surname of the authors of the works submitted.

Specific proof of authorization of the legal representatives of children will be requested for the winning works.

The terms and conditions of this competition are governed by Belgian law, and any disputes arising in connection with them shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Belgian (French-speaking) courts.
